

SUPPORT SPANISH LANGUAGE ACTORS!

In 2003 the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) was in negotiations with Fremantle Latin America for a Telenovela to be produced for NBC/Telemundo. In February 2004 Fremantle cancelled negotiations announcing that they would produce it non-union, using non-union talent from the US and would bring in “international talent”. They have since moved the production from Los Angeles to Dallas, Texas.
